

SPRING 2001 CORPORATE UPDATE - Nichols' Projects

- Evaluation of a provincial program in the field of childrens' health
- Socio-economic impact studies of major oil sands, heavy oil, and power plant projects, for clients including TrueNorth Energy, Gulf, EPCOR, and BlackRock Ventures
- A customer satisfaction survey for a utility distribution company
- A performance measurement study related to public guardianship
- Comparative land development and financial analyses pertaining to a tourism-based mountain community
- An off-sites levy study for a southern Alberta city
- A public attitudes survey regarding household hazardous waste disposal for a municipally-operated waste management system
- Marketing and economics study related to wood ash
- Facilitation of a strategic issues, performance measurement, and financial planning workshop for the senior management of an Alberta city
- Economic analysis of an accelerated infrastructure development program in the NWT
- An evaluation of a professional program for the Alberta College of Physicians and Surgeons
- Business and market planning for a proposed RV park in the Alberta foothills region
- A survey and related study of skill needs and training requirements for senior municipal administrators in the context of succession planning
- An employee satisfaction survey for a provincial government department
- A study of cumulative royalty and tax impacts of oil sands development in northeastern Alberta
- A study of municipal dissolution experience and impacts in Alberta
- Research and financial analysis to support a review of an adult development program

NICHOLS Applied Management
Management and Economic Consultants