

CORPORATE UPDATE - Fall 2002

Recent Nichols' Projects

- ◆ Socio-economic impact analyses of major oil sands projects for Shell, CNRL, TrueNorth Energy, and JACOS.
- ◆ A cost-benefit study of a proposed bridge across the Mackenzie River in the NWT.
- ◆ A Fort McMurray housing strategy study for a private sector resource company.
- ◆ Analysis of an intermunicipal cost- and revenue-sharing arrangement.
- ◆ Preparation of a draft economic value-added diversification strategy for Alberta.
- ◆ Assistance to a government-industry-labour committee in the development of a provincial workplace health and safety strategy. Organization of a provincial forum to review committee recommendations.
- ◆ Analysis of property assessment trends and patterns among Alberta's municipalities.
- ◆ Formative evaluation of a provincial government call centre.
- ◆ Separate studies of accessible taxi and specialized transit services.
- ◆ Preparation of submissions to provincial and federal forums on urban matters on behalf of various municipalities and provincial-municipal organizations.
- ◆ Design and evaluation of provincial labour market and income support programs and services.
- ◆ Design and administration of focus groups relating to a controversial neighborhood housing development.
- ◆ Feasibility assessment of the proposed relocation of an aboriginal community.
- ◆ Assistance to an Alberta city in the development of an infrastructure strategy.
- ◆ Export study of Alberta education and training services.
- ◆ Economic modelling of the provincial fiscal impacts of oil sands developments.
- ◆ A salary and benefits survey for a professional association.

NICHOLS Applied Management
Management and Economic Consultants