

Corporate Update 2004

- Assistance with the development and implementation of a new accountability and financial management framework for Alberta Human Resources and Employment's Skills Investment programs and services
- Evaluation of Health Link Alberta, a province-wide telephone health information and advice service
- Development of a tool for measuring the societal impact of medical research in Alberta
- Development of a business plan for a municipal drainage service
- An analysis of alternative models of downtown development in major cities
- Analytical support to the Strategies for Urban Sustainability Conference held in Edmonton
- A review of the criteria utilized to prioritize transportation infrastructure projects
- Fiscal and socio-economic impact assessment of a proposed large-scale resort and residential-commercial development in a mountain community
- Annexation and revenue-sharing analyses on behalf of a rural municipality
- Development of a long-range financial planning model/plan and recreation plan for an Alberta municipality
- Socio-economic assessment of a proposed all-weather road linking northern Alberta and Saskatchewan
- A comparison of tax rates and utility rates among Alberta municipalities
- A market awareness and client satisfaction survey in the Alberta travel industry
- Student enrolment projections to support school jurisdiction planning activities
- Community and technical assessment of the Metis Settlements Accord
- Socio-economic impact assessments of several oil sands projects, including upgraders, mines, and in situ projects
- Consulting support to an oil sands industry group in a variety of areas, including housing, royalty, and population forecasts
- Consulting assistance to the Alberta Government in regards to the oil sands industry, including project updates and analyses of service levels and infrastructure in Northeastern Alberta
- Transportation and housing strategy development for a major oil sands industry developer
- Analysis of activities in the oil and gas and chemical cluster in the greater Edmonton area
- Assessments of two silica sand-based projects

- An analysis of the full cost of providing ground ambulance services in a major Alberta city
- Facilitation of an industry and stakeholder review of apprenticeship training requirements
- Preparation of a submission to the federal government regarding the implementation of a new deal to support Canadian cities
- Development of an economic development strategy for a rural municipality in Alberta
- Measurement of client awareness, utilization and satisfaction regarding the services provided to Travel Alberta clients in Alberta and internationally